2nd VNCH Golf Classic Is June 22 at Indian Ridge Country Club

Golf with Visiting Nurse and Community Health for a great cause

Visiting Nurse and Community Health, Inc. (VNCH), headquartered at 37 Broadway in Arlington, will host its 2nd Annual VNCH Golf Classic at Indian Ridge Country Club in Andover, on June 22, 2009. The tournament, which will be a Scramble format, will tee off with a 7:15 a.m. shotgun and conclude with a Luncheon, Awards Ceremony and Silent Auction. Proceeds will benefit VNCH's new Hospice Care program.

The event will begin at 6:30 a.m. with registration and a continental breakfast. The putting green and driving range will be open at this time for practice. The shotgun is at 7:15 a.m., followed at Noon by a Cocktail Hour and Luncheon, Awards Ceremony and Silent Auction. Contests will include Closest to the Pin, Longest Drive, and Hole-in-One.

Those who register for this worthy cause will be afforded the following:

- Talk sports with guest golfer, WBZ Channel 4 Sportscaster Dan Roche
- Take advantage of being an honorary "member" of a private country club like Indian Ridge for the day
- Use of Indian Ridge's heated pool for every registered golfer and his/her family members from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Use of Indian Ridge's tennis courts for every registered golfer and his/her family members from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- All amenities, including locker rooms, pro shop, etc., are open to registered golfers and their families

If you're an avid golfer, or just a weekend enthusiast, plan on taking an early summer Monday off to enjoy the private course at Indian Ridge Country Club. To register or get more information, contact Meredith Lambroff at 781-643-6090, ext. 1322. A variety of sponsorship opportunities are available, with the exception of the top-level Platinum Sponsor, which has been sold to Armstrong Ambulance. Those who register by May 1 will get an early-bird discount.
